ORDER IS FAST BEING RESTORED IN ZANESVILLE AND SURPLUS SUPPLIES ARE BEING SHIPPED TO OTHER CITIES

Train and Mail Service is Being Rapidly Restored and Water Has Been Turned Into the City's Mains

GAS WILL BE FURNISHED TO CITIZENS TODAY

Relief Committee is in Need of Laborers and Employment Bureau Has Been Established—Martial Law Enforced After Sun Down—Looter Said to Have Been Shot by Guards in Putnam—Banks Will Open Wednesday and Electric Light and Power Also is Promised.

Zanesville, April 1.—One drowned, one death from peritonitis, one looter shot and killed by guards in Putnam is the death list in Zanesville up to Tuesday morning. As order is restored it is learned that practically every citizen in Zanesville was able to find some place of refuge from the high waters and it is believed that deaths from drowning will not reach a half dozen.

Mrs. P. A. McNeerney of North Fifth street died Sunday morning at the Good Samaritan hospital following an illness of peritonitis. She was rescued from the second story of her home in a boat early last week, but the shock of the exposure was too much for her.

Train and mail service is being rapidly restored, water was turned on yesterday afternoon and the gas supply will probably be turned on today and electric lights and power are promised by Thursday of this week.

Supplies for relief are coming in faster than they can be used and much is being sent down the river to other stricken cities where relief is needed badly.

The Citizens' relief committee has issued a call for more help in the work they have to do and a committee in charge of an employment bureau has established headquarters at the Muskingum Democratic club where men seeking employment will be given work in the cleaning up of the city.

Dozens of the factories and business places have issued orders for their employees to report for work and within a week the city will in a measure, have recovered from the great disaster.

Martial law is now enforced only at night though a careful watch is being kept on all suspicious characters. Sunday night guards fired on two negroes who were attempting to rob the home of Col. T. F. Spangler in Putnam. One is said to have been killed and the other wounded.

The "Y" bridge was used Monday for the first time since the flood, boats being used to convey passengers with passes from the military authorities to and from the approaches.

The opening of the banks tomorrow morning will afford considerable relief to many Zanesville people. Hundreds have been in bad financial straits since the banks were closed and when checks can be cashed much relief will be afforded.

Reports are coming in from nearby towns both north and south of Zanesville, telling of the great havoc wrought by the flood.

Dr. Budreau of the state board of health arrived in Zanesville Monday and has assumed charge of the emergency hospital in Jewett street for the Seventh and Ninth wards. He will also direct the work of restoring sanitary conditions in the city. It has been suggested that all factories remain closed for a week or ten days so the employees can be used in cleaning up the streets. Coroner Walters has announced that he will view all bodies and sign all death certificates but will make no reports to the clerk of courts and thus save the county the expense of the coroner's fees. In any cases where there is evidences of foul play, he will make a full investigation and the usual report.

EX-STATE TREASURER GREEN MAKES CLEAN BREAST OF THE ILLEGAL DEALINGS

Columbus, O., April 1.—Former State Treasurer Charles C. Green, by the state, Green is said to have been out of the state of Ohio, O., who also served as cashier of the Farmers' Savings and Loan company, and the state claims his story is the first big break in the front of the illegal transactions with the Columbus Savings and Trust company, which he had made a confidential statement of the treasurer's alleged illegal dealings with the company and had been at least ten Ohio banks and the treasury for the money. Green made his statement without any promise of immunity.

NEWARK MAN DESCRIBES SIGHTS SEEN IN STRICKEN CITY ON THE MUSKINGUM

"The Newark relief train which left this city Monday morning loaded with supplies of shovels, mops, brooms and rubber boots was certainly a god-send to the stricken inhabitants of Zanesville." Those were the words told Gene Schlegel Monday evening by one of the officers in charge of the supply station at Dante's Lane. Mr. Schlegel with J. P. Irwin and J. F. Cherry accompanied the train. Mr. Schlegel was asked to relate his experiences for the Advocate readers and he cheerfully complied as follows:

"A description of the havoc wrought is almost impossible to relate. It would require a vivid imagination to grasp the terrible calamity which has befallen our neighboring city. It requires a personal inspection of the scene of devastation caused by the rising waters to give any comprehensive idea of the enormous loss and damage to the residential and business districts of the city.

"Our party walked a mile from Dillon Falls along the B. and O. tracks and were forced to clamber over a 15-foot wall until we reached the main bank on the outskirts of West Zanesville. Thence we walked and crawled upon this narrow ledge until we reached the main bridge. Stationed on the fifth-story bridge we viewed a scene which will always linger in our memory as long as life lasts. I have read of the terrible water terrors and tornadoes but they surely have never caused the wreckage of as much property in one place as is witnessed in Zanesville at the present time.

"Gazing from the bridge as far as the eye can see is one continual mass of tangled down, splintered, offices, houses, factories and iron tracks and destruction of railroad property. I do not exaggerate when I say that at least 100 houses were tilted and turned about many upside down and many smaller buildings destroyed. A very few brick houses have been carried away and many are being carried into the turbulent waters of the Muskingum river. At least ten iron bridges of the railroad have been carried away with the houses and buildings which they supported in the air.

SUICIDE BY DROP FROM AEROPLANE

London, April 1.—Lieut. Perlovsky of the Russian army committed suicide by dropping from an aeroplane in the city of Moscow. He was flying over the city when he dropped from the plane and was killed on impact with the ground.

MRS. CLARK IS BADLY BURNED BY GAS EXPLOSION

Mrs. W. H. Clark, age 39, residing at 235 E. 1st avenue, sustained severe burns to the face Monday afternoon when a quantity of gas which had accumulated in the oven of the room in which she was cooking exploded. The explosion was so violent that the force of the explosion was spent on the woman's face and hair. The woman was badly blistered. The patient is now in a very restless night but is some better Tuesday morning. Dr. Foster dressed the injuries and expects that Mrs. Clark will recover.

NEW FOURTH ASSISTANT POSTMASTER GENERAL

(Copyright by Harris & Ewing) James I. Blaklee.

James I. Blaklee, the new fourth assistant postmaster general named by Postmaster General Burleson, is one of the rising young politicians of his home state, Pennsylvania. He is 43 years of age and many years ago he entered political life. He grew to such prominence that he could get backing for an office sought by many.

During the last few years he has been employed by the Lehigh Valley and the Pennsylvania railroads, but he found time from his duties to volunteer for the Spanish war. However, the best assignment he could get during the hostilities was on the hospital reserve corps.

Additional subscriptions to the Board of Trade relief fund are: Christian Science Church, $25; David Edwards, $5.

SIXTEENTH ST. BRIDGE WENT DOWN TODAY

The Sixteenth street bridge which crosses over Racoon creek fell this morning. The high water of the last week proved to be too great for the strength of the bridge and it was undermined to such an extent that the big structure dropped to the creek bed Tuesday morning.

Among the bridges reported to County Auditor Kiley as being washed out was the small bridge at Clay Lick over the Big Clay Lick river and one in Newark township west of the Brister farm.

The east abutment of the Water Works bridge has been washed away and numerous reports have been received regarding the necessity for fills at many bridges.

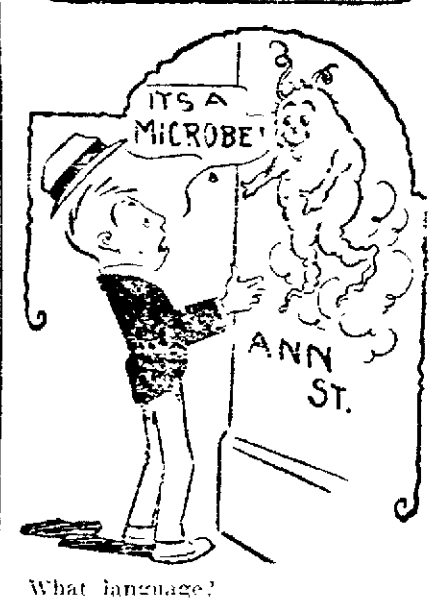

37 BODIES RECOVERED AT PIQUA

Columbus, Ohio, April 1.—Thirty-seven bodies have been recovered in Piqua according to the report made by Senator Kiser of Miami county who returned here today after making a personal investigation of conditions. Among the bodies recovered was that of Attorney Clark Jamison.

In Shawnee, a part of East Piqua, a strip of 100 yards has been swept clean of human remains. Only a few crumpled foundations remain of the houses in East Piqua.

A family of seven living on a farm near Ellettsburg were found in a field on the farm. They were drowned while trying to make their escape.

MILITARY TAKES OVER GROCERIES

Caused by Number of Dayton Merchants Charging Excessive Prices

60 IDENTIFIED DEAD

Physicians are Busy in Effort to Prevent Spread of Disease—City to Continue Martial Law.

Dayton, April 1.—The food supply in Dayton has been over estimated according to reports received today. This morning J. H. Patterson, president of the relief committee, wired Secretary of War Garrison that the food situation was much worse than had been anticipated and that the commission would look to the national government for supplies.

It is estimated that between 30,000 and 40,000 refugees are being fed. Provisions must be received before tomorrow or suffering will ensue. Checks for large sums of money are in the hands of the relief committee but these are useless as no cash is available.

Three bodies were received today bringing the toll of the flood up to 128, according to an estimate by Coroner McKemy. The coroner is making an effort to get a complete list of the dead from the undertakers. A curfew of automobile tires contributed by an Akron rubber company for use in relief work arrived today.

Dayton, April 1.—The identified dead in Dayton's disastrous flood of last week has reached 60. Besides these there are many whose identification has not been established.

Relief committees are busy handing out supplies, the grocery stores of the city having been taken over by the military authorities because some of the merchants were charging excessive prices. A record is kept of all goods sold and the merchants will be paid a liberal price for them.

Physicians are busy in their efforts to prevent a spread of disease, while military authorities, members of the citizens' committee and city officials are discussing the future government of the city. It is unlikely that martial law will be continued until the city has recovered in large measure from the catastrophe which has befallen it.

In the broad line yesterday was Eugene J. Barney, a millionaire, whose gifts to charity have been very large and recently included $25,000 to the Y. M. C. A. He obtained three loaves of bread and a small sack of potatoes. At the meeting of the relief committee and members of the city council yesterday the latter declared their individual willingness to cooperate with the committee in all necessary measures for the protection and rehabilitation of the city. It was decided to appropriate $50,000 of the relief fund to the Red Cross, to be expended in purchasing the bare necessities of life, which will permit destitute families to re-establish homes of a sort until they can improve their own condition.

A committee has been organized with headquarters on the corner of Third and Main streets, to take charge of the distribution of food and supplies. The committee is composed of representatives of the various relief organizations and the city authorities.

There have been reports of such occurrences but no one has been confirmed. In the case of the bodies it is there that the bodies are found. The bodies are found in the streets and in the houses. The bodies are found in the streets and in the houses. The bodies are found in the streets and in the houses.

The bodies are found in the streets and in the houses. The bodies are found in the streets and in the houses. The bodies are found in the streets and in the houses. The bodies are found in the streets and in the houses. The bodies are found in the streets and in the houses.

There is another side to this demand for watchfulness," added the coroner. "Unless the bodies are recovered promptly, an epidemic of disease costing the lives of hundreds may result." With his tears spent in the long (Continued on page 10, Col. 3.)

BODIES FOUND IN LOWLANDS

Sixty-Two Victims of Flood Have Been Recovered in Columbus

SEARCHING FOR MORE

Start Has Been Made to Clean Up West Side and Shovels, Brooms and Mops are Needed Most.

NEWLY IDENTIFIED DEAD. William Hathaway, Yale avenue. Charles Griffin, 12 years, 105 Rogers avenue.

William Thompson, Centner avenue. Mrs. Paul Raduegg, 483 Centner avenue.

Mrs. Oliver Miller, 389 South Glenwood avenue. The bodies of Mrs. Raduegg and Mrs. Miller were found yesterday in the Green Lawn bottoms.

Columbus, April 1.—In contrast with the scenes of destruction in the flood swept west side of this city one week ago today when scores of homes, business blocks and people were being carried down in the swollen waters of the Scioto river while rain fell in torrents, today was a beaming sun which added cheer to the work of rehabilitation.

Dispelling thoughts of the distracting scenes and horrible experiences of those days of suffering as best they could the hundreds of the residents of the west side assisted by willing hands today were busy cleaning mud from their homes and getting together pieces of furniture that had lodged in drifts without serious damage.

In many instances only foundations were left to mark the places where cherry homes formerly stood. Although it has been a week dozens of people were still searching for members of their families who are missing and are believed to be among the dead.

While only 67 bodies had been recovered up to noon the fact that many are still missing convinces the authorities that it is likely a number of bodies will never be recovered. These are supposed to have been swept down stream and are believed to be those whose bodies were seen passing through Chillicothe.

Columbus, O., April 1.—The number of recovered flood victims in Columbus still stands at 62, after an organized search yesterday. Survivors of the flood zone and Coroner Benkert maintain that many more bodies will be found, particularly in the lowlands south of Green Lawn and Mt. Calvary cemeteries. The search for bodies has been centered in exploring the surface of drifts. Most of the corpses recovered have been found lodged against wire fences and trees.

North of the cemetery section are located Glenwood, Centner, Cypress, Rogers, Yale, Princeton and West Park avenues, which were swept. The greatest loss of life was in Glenwood, Centner and Rogers avenues. At the south end of Glenwood, near Mount street, only three houses are standing. Some homes are such complete wrecks that they will have to be torn away before it can be ascertained whether bodies are hidden in them.

Numerous families are searching for loved ones, of whom they have received no word since the flood. Their worn and anxious faces present a pitiful aspect as they file through the morgue seeking for their friends. "Farmers in the vicinity of Green Lawn and Mt. Calvary cemeteries, and the district south of Green Lawn avenue should be on the lookout for bodies," said Coroner Benkert last night. "Unless the utmost aid is given in this matter, the bodies will be in such a terrible state of decomposition before we get them that identification will be almost impossible."

These views taken during the flood in Columbus, Ohio, show the various scenes of rescue and relief efforts. At top is seen a group of people on a boat being lowered into the water. In a middle view a family is being rescued from a flooded house. At right women and children are being helped onto a boat. The bottom view shows rescuers using a ladder to help people out of the water.

Growing Children Need Good Bowels

Give a Mild Laxative Occasionally
To Insure a Regular Bowel Action.

As a child grows older it requires more and more personal attention from the mother, and as the functions of the bowels are of the utmost importance to health great attention should be paid to them.

Diet is of great importance, and the mother should watch the effect of certain foods. A food will constipate one and not another, and so we have a healthy food like eggs causing biliousness to thousands, and a wholesome fruit like bananas constipating many. It is also to be considered that the child is growing, and great changes are taking place in the young man or young woman. The system has not yet settled itself to its later routine.

A very valuable remedy at this stage, and one which every growing boy and girl should be given often or occasionally according to the individual circumstances, is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. This is a laxative and tonic compound, so mild that it is given to little babies, and yet equally effective in the most robust constitution. At the first sign of a tendency to constipation give a small dose of Syrup Pepsin at night on retiring, and prompt action will follow in the morning. It not only acts on the stomach and bowels but its tonic properties build up and strengthen the system generally. Mrs. Henry Babler, Van Dyne, Wis., writes that her little son, Melvin Babler, was constipated most of the time until she gave him Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. Since using this remedy he has never been constipated.

The use of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin will teach you to avoid cathartics, salts and pills as they are too harsh for the majority and their effect is only temporary. Syrup Pepsin brings permanent results, and it can be conveniently obtained of any nearby druggist at fifty cents and one dollar a bottle. Results are always guaranteed or money will be refunded.

If no member of your family has ever used Syrup Pepsin and you would like to make a personal trial of it before buying it in the regular way of a druggist, send your address—a postal will do—to W. B. Caldwell, 417 Washington St., Monticello, Ill., and a free sample bottle will be mailed you.

WILL PRESENT "SWEET LAVENDER" FOR PLAY GROUND

On Friday evening, April 11, the Thalian and Athenian literary societies will present the ever popular comedy, "Sweet Lavender." This play has proven to be a phenomenal success wherever presented, and is in fact more of a modern fairy story than a realistic study of life. It thoroughly conforms to the avowed design of the author, Mr. Pinero, to make it of entertaining value. There is a large royalty on the play, as it is now being presented by several first class companies in the United States, and is now being played at Terry's in England, and is being introduced into the Antipodes.

The cast is well selected and includes the best talent in the high school as the two societies make a specialty of dramatic and literary work. Miss Vance, the brilliant and competent coach, has had the play under preparation for four months and the characters will be impersonated by the following:

Mr. Geoffrey Wedderburn, a rich banker—Paul Grove.

Clement Hale, his adopted son.

FLOOD BROUGHT HAVOC AT COLUMBUS, O., WRECKING MANY HOUSES AND BRIDGES

These pictures, taken at Columbus, O., during the height of the flood, show how many bridges were swept away and houses damaged. The upper view was taken in the heart of the stricken district. Notice how the corner of the residence was ripped out. This shows the force of the flood. Many lost their lives in just that way. They thought their homes were safe and sought safety on the second floor or on the roof, and later their homes were partly wrecked or whirled away entirely. The lower picture is of the Town street bridge after the flood had destroyed it. A few hours before this bridge went down thousands of people flocked to it and stood on the span watching the rushing river, which was then almost up to the floor of the structure.

K. D. OWEN IS AMONG THOSE TO PRAISE REMEDY

K. D. OWEN IS AMONG THOSE TO PRAISE REMEDY.

Gladly Adds His Endorsement to Remarkable New Remedy, Vin Hepatica.

Catarrh may take so many forms that frequently people mistake this condition for organic diseases. Herein lies the chief danger of the complaint. Vin Hepatica is proving to be invaluable in relieving such conditions as Mr. K. D. Owen can testify.

Mr. K. D. Owen, box 165, Fredericktown, O., recently stated:

"It gives me great pleasure in recommending Vin Hepatica. After one has suffered as I have, and a short treatment of a medicine makes him feel better than he has for the past twelve years, it is no wonder that I am well pleased with it. I had suffered from catarrhal stomach trouble practically all my life and had been pronounced by many as incurable but thanks to this new tissue builder, I am feeling like a new man. To say that I gladly add my endorsement to this preparation would be indeed putting it mildly."

Catarrh attacks the mucous membrane which lines every cavity and organ of the body, consequently it can be seen how wide spread this complaint may become. Any one of the following symptoms may denote its presence: depression of spirits, dull pains in the head, right side and back, dizziness, lack of energy, chills, nervousness, stopped up nose, poor circulation, cold, clammy hands and feet. These are but a few of the conditions which point to catarrhal trouble.

Vin Hepatica can be obtained at T. J. Evans' Drug Store who has the exclusive agency for this valuable preparation in this territory.

BASEBALL PLANTS SUFFERED HEAVILY FROM HIGH WATERS

Some Newark fans are wondering what effect the flood will have on the baseball situation both in the Ohio State league and in the Interstate Portsmouth, Ironton, Chillicothe, Hamilton and Huntington have suffered considerably from the unprecedented high waters though nothing is known here as to what damage has been done to the baseball plants in any of these cities.

Should it develop that the plants have been destroyed or greatly damaged, it is probable that baseball officials will receive little encouragement from the citizens in any effort they might make to restore the buildings and fences. All the towns will have suffered such financial loss that residents will not feel like contributing towards the luxury of baseball.

In Zanesville, the bleachers and portions of the grand stand of the park rested against the Fifth street bridge. Considerable trouble had already been experienced in financing the 1913 club and under the present conditions it seems likely that the blow to the game there will be more than it can stand.

Of course, baseball matters have been pushed into the background for the more important problem of saving human lives and caring for them by providing food and clothing. Where some sort of order is restored thoughts will turn to baseball and then some developments are to be expected.

A collection for the flood sufferers was taken at the Sunday services at a First Presbyterian church. The amount collected, $33.60, will be used to the best advantage by the committee composed of Mr. Ray Evans, Mr. David Kingery and Mrs. Billingslea.

(Continued from Page One.) separated and for two days the inventor could not find his father. Orville Wright fled soon after the other two and found refuge on high ground. The interior of his house was ruined by water. Fire broke out in the building near the old shop where the Wright brothers worked for so many years in perfecting their flying machine. In the shop were valuable plans and data dealing with the construction of aeroplanes and navigation of the air. Orville was greatly relieved when he returned to find that the flames had spared the shop and its contents.

EXECUTIVE OF SHEPARDSON HAS RESIGNED

The resignation of Blanche G. Loveridge, dean of Shepardson college, Granville, to take effect at the end of the school year, was announced Monday. She has been the executive head of this school for four years and her administration has been characterized by a steady growth.

Miss Loveridge is a woman of broad experience and is recognized widely as a power in educational and religious circles. Her own statement as to her reason for resigning is simply that she does not desire the work longer. She has not made her plans for the future public, but wherever she goes, she will carry with her the best wishes of a large number of local friends.

Miss Iva Morgan of Spokane, Wash., started early this week from Washington state to reach Newark to attend the funeral of her father. But owing to the floods in Indiana and Ohio, she has been held in Chicago and great uneasiness was felt by relatives here for her safety. However, word has been received saying she was in Detroit, and would probably reach Newark Monday night or Tuesday morning.

FRANK LINK MAKES SHORT STATEMENT

Wheeling (W. Va.) Man's Statement Of His Cure Accomplished by United Doctors' Treatment SOUGHT IN VAIN

Sought in Vain for Cure But Only Got it After Going to the United Doctors.

Again the same truth is heard of a sick person failing to obtain a cure under the ordinary methods of treatment and therefore the following statement of Mr. Frank F. Link's telling of his cure made by the United Doctors who have an institute in Newark at 40 Arcade, entrance near Third street, will but remind the sick of the remarkable curative powers of these specialists' new system of medicine. The statement, owing to its great interest to suffering people is reproduced as follows: "I wish to write a few lines in order to thank the United Doctors publicly for what they have done for me."

I have suffered for six months with pains in my stomach which made it almost unbearable.

I did everything in my power to get well but all seemed in vain. I decided finally to give the United Doctors a try after having heard of their wonderful cures.

I have now been under their care but a few months and will now say that I am about as good as ever. I cannot explain all that the United Doctors have done for me in this public statement but I will be more than pleased to tell anyone who calls on me or write me, in full detail what these specialists have done for me.

(Signed) Sincerely,
FRANK LINK,
518 Grand View St.
Wheeling, W. Va.

NEWARK WOMAN TELLS OF HORRORS IN ZANESVILLE

Mrs. George B. Clarkson, wife of George B. Clarkson, Advocate linotype machine, was visiting in Zanesville for a few days before the flood and was marooned in the city for almost a week. To an Advocate reporter, she told the following story of her arrowing experience.

"I was indeed fortunate in being on high ground when the flood came, as I crossed the Third street bridge for the last time on Tuesday evening."

Last Wednesday night was one of the most terrible nights I ever experienced and we thought if ever the world was coming to an end, it must be near. Water was coming down in torrents, the water was still rising in the river. We had no gas for either light or fuel. Candles were used for lights and a little dry wood could be found was burned in a grate.

Then in addition to all this we could see from our windows the burning of the Adams Bros. building in Putnam and just a cross the river, on Third street the Bartley barn burning.

All through the night we could hear the cries of men, women and children from both Putnam and the Seventh ward calling for some one to come to their aid. Some were on the house-tops and some were on the rooftops. But the work of rescue of any of them was slow and dangerous. There were few boats in the Seventh ward and scarcely none in Putnam.

Food began getting scarce and we did not know how much longer we would be able to buy anything. We were told Wednesday that soon the milk supply would be cut off.

HUMAN SYMPATHY AND THE FLOOD SUFFERERS

It is a common feeling that the human heart has become rather indifferent in recent years. But the quick response offered to the present flood and tornado sufferers suggests that there is more kindness abroad than one realizes.

At the time of the San Francisco fire, in hundreds of towns in the distant East business men gave up work to go from house to house begging for silver coins. In loss of life our recent floods are a much more tragic happening, and the generous offering so sorely needed is not lacking.

Probably people have little conception of what generous gifts are being made all the time to single cases of misfortune that never get into the newspapers. The people who are giving to Zanesville, Dayton and Omaha are no doubt giving all the time to suffering as it claims attention in their own neighborhoods. Real misfortune still finds the helping hand.

Let All Join in "Clean-Up."

One week from today will be Newark's annual clean up day. Mayor Swartz has issued a proclamation calling attention to this important event and urging every citizen of Newark to join in the movement.

The unusual conditions resulting from last week's high water makes it imperative for the health of Newark people that the work of clean up be vigorously prosecuted, especially in the sections of the city affected by the water. While the property damage was practically nothing in Newark many cellars were flooded and rubbish and filth carried by the swollen streams has been deposited beyond the creek banks. This rubbish and filth must be removed. Cellars should be limed and everybody should make an effort to make the whole city clean.

Rubbish from yards and cellars free from garbage may be deposited upon the street near the curb next Monday, April 7. It will be carted away beginning Tuesday without charge. The city will do the work.

Health Officer Knauss who has been called to military duty as major in the Fourth regiment O. N. G. at Columbus, was here for a few hours Monday and issued orders for his department. Dr. Knauss also expressed the hope that the newspapers would bring to the attention of readers the great importance of a general and thorough clean up of Newark.

The Board of Trade established clean-up day here three years ago and it has proved to be popular and a helpful movement. As a result, the fire peril has been lessened, health conditions benefited and the appearance of the city improved. Each year the number participating in the work has increased. This year it should be unanimous. The city needs a thorough house cleaning. Let every citizen do his and her part now.

GLOWING TRIBUTE TO GOVERNOR COX

(New York World.)

The man who has dominated the situation in Ohio is Gov. Cox. He has been not only Chief Magistrate and Commander-in-Chief, but the head of the life-saving service, the greatest provider of food and clothing that the state has ever known, the principal health officer, the sanest counsellor, the severest disciplinarian, the hardest worker, the most hopeful prophet, the kindest philanthropist and the best reporter. He has performed almost incredible labors in all these fields, and his illuminating despatches to The World at the close of several heartbreaking days have given a clearer idea of conditions than could be had from any other source.

Reared on a farm, educated in the public schools, a printer by trade, a successful publisher and editor of newspapers, a faithful congressman, a true Democrat, a great Governor and a reporter who gets his story into the first edition, James M. Cox excites and is herewith offered assurances of The World's most distinguished consideration.

FOUND BY A MICROSCOPE

The curability of Bright's Disease is not a matter of opinion but a fact in nature. One factor in determining it is the microscope.

Casts are flecks of kidney tissue that flow from the degenerating kidneys in Bright's Disease. They can only be found by a microscope. If an agent has been evolved that counteracts renal degeneration then the casts must gradually disappear. That Fulton's Renal Compound gets these results can be proven by any scientist who cares to take the time.

It is a mild infusion and can be taken by a child. The usual heart and eliminative treatment given to sustain patients down with Bright's Disease can be taken with it if necessary. There is no conflict. Recoveries have been reported in thousands of cases. If our ideas are hazy and if only a half or third of the 90,000 annually dying from this disease can live on in comfort to other terminations who can estimate the value of this Compound to humanity?

If you have Bright's Disease you owe it to yourself and family to try Fulton's Renal Compound before giving up. It can be had at F. D. Hall, druggist.

Ask for pamphlet on our investigation into the curability of Bright's Disease or write Jno. J. Fulton Co., San Francisco.

ALL FOOLS DAY

This is the day of the red hot penny and the pocketbook on a string; the day when we all start nervously when any one tells us we have lost something.

Most of us lose something every day without appreciating our loss. We lose opportunities to save money, opportunities to cut down the cost of living, and opportunities to buy at the best prices. Every day is April Fool's day for some of us who go about with closed eyes.

But there is no April Fool's Day on the calendar of the merchants of this city who advertise in THE ADVOCATE. They offer you goods which are "on the square." good qualities, low prices every day and all the time.

Keep your eyes open to your buying opportunities by reading the advertisements in THE ADVOCATE every day.

Kidney Trouble Vanishes

GAINED EIGHTEEN POUNDS

Some time ago I was troubled with what the doctors pronounced to be bloating kidney. I was completely run down and so weak and exhausted that I did my housework one day, could have to stay in bed the next, doctored with many physicians and they all told me that my kidney could never be well. I decided to try Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root and found that I got relief. I continued the use of Swamp-Root and today my kidneys are in fine shape and I am enjoying the best of health. APRIL FOOLS

This is the day when foolish folks think they've a license for their worst; they fill abandoned hats with bricks, the which they wear pilgrim kicks, and busts a dozen toes. By exercise of brutal guile they have us journey many a mile on errands wild and crook; they trap and trick us every way, and take the sunshine from our day, and call it "April Fool!" But when all things are said and done, the fool is not the stricken one who's badgered and beguiled, though he has suffered, he has not conspired to make the neighbors hot and drive companions wild. The fool is he who plays the trick; he always makes some people sick and weary of his game; though years may pass, and he may pant for people's confidence, he can't shake off his foolish fame. I'd rather be the guy who kicks old plug hat that's filled with bricks than be the slave who grins and thinks it humorous to see a fellow mortal break his knee and lacerate his shins. I'd rather try to take a chair, and find he blame thing isn't there, and fall like ton of hay, I'd rather have my backbone bent than be the feeble-minded sent who takes the chair away.

The Human Procession

BY O. TERRENCE

Speaker Lowther, 58 Today Will be Elevated to Peerage

Members of the British House of Commons will today congratulate their speaker, the Rt. Hon. James William Lowther, on his fifty-eighth birthday. It is not likely that there will be any facetious comments on the fact that the speaker was born on All Fool's Day, for in his robes, his wig and silver-buckled boots, with a huge golden mace in one hand, Mr. Lowther is a dignified personage, and not to be trifled with. While on duty he is surrounded by a retinue of attendants and a small army of satellites, and his every act is regulated by precedent and tradition. He sits on a throne in semi-regal state, and does not mingle with the legislators. Daily a sea of language rages about him, and waves and billows of words dash against his rock, on which he sits enthroned. When the tempest of partisanship rages fiercest, and threatens to engulf the Gibraltar of authority, the speaker rises and commands, "Peace, a still." The storm of words subsides, and silence takes the place of andomomium. The speaker rules, and against his ruling there is no appeal. "I have spoken," says the speaker, and the matter is settled. Once in a generation there may be a rotest, but he who protests goes against centuries of tradition that command instant obedience to the ruling of he who sits on the Speaker's throne.

Mr. Lowther has been Speaker of the House for eight years, and it is understood that he now desires to retire to the more peaceful atmosphere of the House of Lords. When he lays down the mace for the last time, he will be created a viscount, and if his party be in power will probably be given a high place in the government. The speaker like his predecessors for centuries, wears while on duty a robe of silk, knee breeches and stockings of the same material, and lace-frilled collar and cuffs. Mr. Lowther, although he holds office under a Liberal government, is affiliated politically with the opposition. He is one of the several distinguished sons of the Hon. William Lowther and Charlotte Alice, daughter of Baron Wensleydale. The son, William Lowther was a younger brother of the third Earl of Lonsdale, and Speaker Lowther is a cousin of the present Earl, famed as a patron of boxing and other sports. The speaker is immensely wealthy, and he owner of much property in the Lake district, where the Lowthers have long been landlords and petty princes. When off duty the Speaker is jovial and democratic. His ruling which caused the withdrawal of the women's franchise measure aroused the enmity of the militants, and perhaps their attentions have in past years been responsible for Mr. Lowther's desire to retire.

Edmond Rostand, internationally famous as the author of "Cyrano de Bergerac," will pass his forty-fifth birthday today, having been born in Marseilles, France, April 1, 1868. The creator of "Chantecler" has a talented wife, who has recently written a successful comedy, and a son who has already arrived as an actor. The latter, M. Maurice Rostand, known as "the Dauphin of Cambo," is a handsome youth and the pet of Parisian femininity. An operative version of M. Rostand's "Cyrano de Bergerac" was recently produced in New York, much to the French dramatist's indignation. M. Rostand alleges that the opera was produced without his permission, and the offer to pay him a royalty has not entirely assuaged his rage.

She Was Easy.

"What's the matter, little boy?" inquired the kindly old lady.
"I jes' lost 5 cents," replied the little boy, who was crying bitterly.
"Well, here's 5 cents more for you, so don't cry. How did you lose it?"
"I lost it pitchin' pennies."—Fun.

FIRST THINGS

The first observance of All Fool's Day, according to legend, was when Noah sent a dove out of the ark before the waters had abated, on the Hebrew first day of the month. Whether his error of judgment was greeted with cries of "April fool" cannot be learned. The ancient Hindus had in their festival of Huli an observance similar to that of modern times, when innocent persons were sent on foolish errands. Plutarch mentions an old Roman festival, Festa Stultorum, as a day of pranks and coaxes, and it is said that the rape of the Sabine women occurred on the first of April, and was considered in the light of a joke. England and Scotland observed the festival of fools centuries ago, and the person fooled was called a "goose," while in France the victim of April foolery is called "poisson d'avril," or April fish, on the theory that a fish is a glib creature and easily duped into taking a bait. Since the days of the old Romans, the Eternal City has been noted for its first of April pranks. A large part of the Roman newspapers today will be devoted to absurd and impossible stories, gravely told. The limit was reached a few years ago when a Roman newspaper printed a story announcing the marriage of the Pope!

Clean your sinks with GOLD DUST

No place in the home gathers grease as quickly as the kitchen sink. Gold Dust washing powder, however, has the peculiar quality of dissolving and cutting grease and if, after each dishwashing, a suds is made in the dishpan with warm water and Gold Dust, and the sink thoroughly rinsed with these suds, the last particle of dirt and grease will be removed.

The sink pipe will never become clogged with grease if Gold Dust and plenty of hot water are used for washing the sink morning and evening.

Gold Dust is sold in 50 size and large packages. The large package means greater economy.

AINOR'S BODY IS SENT HOME

The body of Charles Aino, glass worker, who was killed by a train a week ago at Kellers Crossing, north of the city, was sent this morning to the home of his brother, Thomas Aino, at McKees Rocks, Pa., for funeral and interment will occur. The body has been at the McGonagle morgue since the accident, it being impossible to forward it to the brother on account of the high waters. The body was shipped by Adams Express, via Columbus, Bu. and Mansfield. The glass workers gave charge of the funeral arrangements.

The April First Smile

HE April first smile is a jolly sort of smile, isn't it? Even when the joke is on ourselves, we laugh in a sneaking, furtive sort of way; because the good humor of the day has got into our blood, and we just can't help finding a bit of delight in the foolishness and nonsense of it all.

Encyclopedias probably tell the historical origin of April Fool Day. But the real origin of it is right in the human heart. If we didn't all of us enjoy a good joke, if we didn't find pleasure in a hearty laugh, if we didn't have a sense of humor, the first of April as a special day on the calendar would be a dead one. But its observance, such as it is, has touched a responsive chord in the heart, and so it lives.

And isn't it rather pleasant to dwell upon the fact that at heart we have such a love of fun, that we thus keep alive a day that practically honors the joke. For aren't humor and laughter good things to keep alive in life? Doesn't life go more easily, when we can see the funny side of things?

So after all, there may be a deeper significance to April Fool Day than we think. For if it teaches some of us to smile more easily, if it helps us to develop a sense of humor so that we can take adverse situations with a laugh instead of with a frown, surely it is a day worthy of real regard.

For laughter is a tonic, and good nature is like sunshine, and anything that spreads the gospel of good cheer is to be commended.

And so today, it is a cheery sight to walk abroad and see nearly every one on the broad grin. It is inspiring to hear the snigger of the small boy concealed behind a barrel, as he watches the pedestrian furtively endeavoring to remove a dime from the pavement. It is as good as a show to exchange significant smiles with our fellows as we step along behind a magnificent old gentleman with a port wine complexion and impressive side whiskers, as he sails majestically down the street bearing on his back the placard, "Just escaped." Though for all we know we may be affording as keen amusement to those in our wake.

But it is a day of jollity. And at night, we are all the better for the spirit of fun that has permeated the atmosphere.

MI-O-NA A SPECIFIC FOR STOMACH ILLS

Many people think their house, dogs and other things in which they are interested with more thoughtfulness than their stomachs.

We take precautions against fire and other damage to property, but what care or thought do we give our bodies? Almost none! Somehow we have an idea that our mortal frame will stand any abuse heaped upon it, so we go on tormenting it until it becomes defiant and rebels.

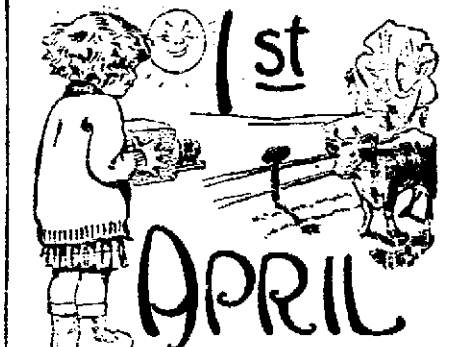

A little fire bell in the system always rings to sound the warning. We have an ache, pain, a bad taste in the mouth, or something out of the ordinary. What is the cause? Just this—been eating too much, too fast, or something that the overloaded and tired digestive organs refuse to handle in the natural way.

Be prepared for these warnings. Mi-o-na Tablets are a specific for stomach ills. Get a box today—always keep them in the house—carry them when traveling—take them at the first warning of stomach distress.

If you have that uncomfortable feeling of fullness, if your stomach is upset, tongue coated, head aches, you feel dizzy at times, and are irritable and depressed, beware—you are warned that the stomach and digestive organs are in rebellion. Do not delay. Take Mi-o-na—at once—immediate relief is certain.

Remember—if not benefitted Mi-o-na costs nothing—always sold on money back plan at Evans' Drug Store, and druggists everywhere. 50c a large box.

THE BIRTHDAY CALENDAR.

AMUSEMENTS

ORPHEUM THEATRE.

The Shaffer and Moran Co. was compelled to put in another week in the city and they have two complete changes of bill. For the first three days of the week the little company presents the comedy of a thousand laughs, entitled "Whose Baby are You?" and this promises to be one of the best plays offered at the little theatre this season. Three large crowds witnessed the play on Monday and the bill will surely put large crowds the balance of their stay in the city.

Mr. Bat Shaffer in the comedy role of the Gardiner was very funny, as the young man is a clever comedian; he also had a clever specialty to offer in the olio which brought him much applause. Miss Pauline Mason had a very good part and handled it in fine shape.

Miss Beesie White was very clever and funny in the part of the old maid. She received many encores for her work. Mr. Geo. Bower and Billy Williams, the dancing boys, had a new kind of dance to offer and they put this on in a classy manner.

The chorus was well costumed and had many bright and breezy songs to offer. This show without a doubt is one of the best entertainments the house has had this season and is well worth the time of any one looking for good amusement. A good picture closed the show.

AT THE RISK OF HIS LIFE TO-NIGHT.

Manager Johnson of the Auditorium announces that his big special feature photograph, "At the Risk of His Life," which failed to arrive in time for presentation last night, will positively work. Mr. Geo. Bower and Billy Williams, the dancing boys, had a new kind of dance to offer and they put this on in a classy manner.

MANY POWERFUL PLAYS.

The Auditorium will be given over to an ideal round of all that is attractive and delightful in the realms of the stage, next week. Comedy, drama, farce, romantic drama, tragedy, and even melodrama will be among the offerings. The productions will be made by Helen Graetz, a charming actress who heads a company that is unusual for its strength and excellency. A round of famous plays commencing Monday afternoon when "Catherine's Aunt," the funniest of comedies, will be given. Monday night will be devoted to "Reveries of Graystark," the most delightful of all the Geo. Barr McPherson stories. It is staged in the most elaborate manner. Seats go on sale Saturday.

Happy Days.

However varied the courses of our life, whatsoever the phase of pleasure and ambition through which it has swept along, still, when in memory we would revive the times that were comparatively the happiest, these times will be found to have been the calm est.—Bulwer Lytton.

The Fly with its sticky feet collects the harmful germs of disease—spreads them over our food and poisons us with typhoid.

Let your stomach be of good digestion, your liver active and your lungs full of good pure air and you don't surrender to any of the disease-bearing germs. The best known tonic and alternative that corrects a torpid liver, and helps digestion so that good blood is manufactured and the system nourished, is

KING GEORGE HAD STIRRING REIGN

From Masthead to Throne When Only Eighteen.

NEW RULER IS POPULAR.

Constantine. After Being Forced to Leave Athens in 1909 by Military League. Returned and Led Army to Victory in Last Balkan War—Would Be Hellenic Emperor.

Salonika—King George of Greece, who was assassinated here by a degenerate and mad Scoundrel, was literally taking from the masthead of a Danubian cruiser and elevated to the proud position of king of the Hellenes.

That was in 1909. The years that followed were crowded with more of adventure and adventure than fail to the lot of most modern monarchs.

George's family name is Holstein-Gottorp. He was the second son of Prince Christian of Schleswig-Holstein-Sonderburg-Glücksburg, who afterward became king of Denmark.
The young prince was named Christian William Ferdinand Adolphus George and as such entered the naval service of Denmark. He had made two cruises and was about to start on a third when a revolution broke out in Greece.

Within three days King Otto of Greece, a Bavarian, had lost the throne he had occupied for thirty years. It became necessary for the European powers to find a substitute.

It looked as if the throne might go to Prince William, still a boy in his teens, or whose existence, perhaps, not one in a thousand of his future subjects was aware.

It was necessary for the Greek national assembly to go through the for-

CONSTANTINE, THE NEW KING OF GREECE.
Majority of electing the nominee of the powers. This was done at Athens on March 18, 1909.

The early years of the reign of this alien monarch were peaceful. In 1907 he married Olga Constantinovna, eldest daughter of the Grand Duke Constantine, brother of Czar Alexander of Russia, thereby strengthening the position of Greece and enhancing his own popularity.

Quarrels of political factions and official corruption soon involved the nation in difficulties, for which the king was held responsible. War with Turkey was declared for in 1910 and it was only the firm attitude of the king and the backing of the powers which prevented Greece rushing into a conflict for which she was not prepared.

When war finally came in 1912 it was demonstrated that the king had acted wisely. The conflict soon ended in disaster to the Grecian arms, and Turkish reprisals would have been heavy had not the powers enforced terms of peace that favored the vanquished rather than the victors.

Before the war King George had been perhaps the most hated man in Greece. An attempt had been made to assassinate him while he was driving with his daughter.

The successes of the present war had restored the popularity of the king and all his family. He and the crown prince had brought the Greek army to a state of great efficiency. The capture of Janina with its garrison of 10,000 men was the climax of a brilliant campaign.

The king left seven children, five sons and two daughters. They are Constantine, Duke of Sparta, who now succeeds to the throne; Alexandra, who was married to Grand Duke Paul Alexandrovich of Russia; George,
Nicholas, Marie, Andrew and Christopher.

Constantine, the new king, was born in Athens and received his early education from foreign tutors, who taught him to speak German, English, Latin, French and Dutch. At the age of eighteen he was graduated from the military academy with the rank of sublieutenant in the army.

Until the war with Turkey in 1909
he had had little military experience aside from participating in the annual military maneuvers of the German army, but he was considered a thought-

DR. FRIEDMANN OPERATING ON PATIENT IN BELLEVUE

That medical sentiment toward Dr.
Friedmann, Franz Friedmann, the German who believes he has a cure for tuberculosis, is changing. It was known by the large attendance of physicians at the clinic he held in Bellevue Hospital, New York, last week. Those physicians who had heretofore sneered at the claims of the German, some of them saying he did not even know how to prepare or an injection of his turtle serum, have now ceased their criticisms.

In the illustration Dr. Friedmann is shown making an injection, assisted by several internes of the staff of Bellevue. It is the first picture of the kind he has permitted a photographer to take.

"I am pleased to hear that those I have treated have shown improvement," said he, "but I have made no claim that improvement would show immediately. That takes time, in some cases months."

GOVERNOR COX'S OPTIMISTIC VIEW OF THE SITUATION

Columbus, April 1.—Governor Cox took a cheerful view of the flood situation in Ohio in his address at the joint meeting of the Columbus churches held under the auspices of the ministerial association at Memorial hall. He estimated that the property losses in the state would reach three hundred millions. Some of the larger rivers were left without a bridge. The loss of human life, while fortunately not as large as was feared, was, of course, beyond estimate in terms of dollars and cents. To the sufferers there was left the consolation of religion and therein he suggested that a great purpose might lie. He spoke in glowing terms of the response from the entire nation, both officially and individually, and said it had been a great inspiration to him to note the touch of sympathy that swept over the country and was followed by a flow of substantial aid toward the stricken districts. President Wilson had placed at the service of the state every federal agency of aid, and trainloads of supplies had been wending their ways toward Ohio ever since the first dire news reached the outside world.

One of the Blair auto trucks from the factory in West Newark left this city Saturday evening at 5 o'clock loaded down with telephone supplies and eight men and arrived at Zanesville at 9 o'clock. This was remarkable good time considering the condition of the roads.

Catawba, dregs of wine, wisteria and amethyst are fashionable shades and hunters' green is also in demand.

Owes Life to This Consumption Remedy

It is beyond human power to perform miracles. The makers of Eckman's Alternative, a remedy for Consumption, do not claim that it will restore every one to perfect health, but so many have voluntarily testified it saved their lives, that all who have this dread disease should investigate and try it. It should stop the night sweats, reduce the cough, improve the appetite and in very many cases, prolong life. Read what it accomplished in this case:

Catherine Ave. and Asad Place, Queens, Conn., L. I.

"Gentlemen: In the year 1905 I was taken with a heavy cold and a nasty cough and went to several doctors, including a specialist. Their medicines failed. I then went to the Catskills, but the cough still kept up. I stayed there a year and then went on a farm near Jersey City, a very sick man. My brother then recommended Eckman's Alternative to me very highly. At first I would not consent to use it, owing to the fact that I had taken so many medicines without being helped in any way, but finally I consented. It is now nearly two years since I first took it. I am now cured and I dare say that I had not been here for Eckman's Alternative, wish to thank you for the goodness to me. Whenever I go I highly recommend the Alternative to all my life-long friends."

(Signed) ALBERT J. JONES, BROOKLYN, N. Y.

Eckman's Alternative is effective in Bronchitis, Asthma, Hay Fever, Throat and Lung Troubles, and in expelling the system. Does not contain poisons, opiates or habit-forming drugs. Ask for booklet telling of recoveries, and write to Eckman Laboratory, Philadelphia, Pa., for more evidence. For sale by all leading druggists in Newark.

ANXIETY IS CAUSED BY THE OHIO

Cairo, Ill., April 1.—The Ohio river rose steadily and at 7 o'clock today stood between 53.2 and 63.3. The population was astir early and the fact that the water had substantially passed the 52 mark caused much anxiety. All felt today would prove the crucial one in the flood situation.

The refugees have left the city by thousands and the stations are filled. Water seeped through under the concrete wall and stood in the Main street of Cairo today but the levee has shown no signs of weakening. The men worked all night at the levee placing sand bags.

Huntington, April 1.—Fire broke out in the flooded residence districts here early today and threatened an entire city block but the flames were checked by the use of dynamite. Eleven persons were rescued from the burning building. Fire engines placed on barges pumped water on the flames. State Fire Marshal Allison directed the work of the firemen.

Louisville, Ky., April 1.—Little anxiety was felt over the few inches of additional rise predicted for the river before the crest of the flood reaches here late today or early tomorrow with the stage of 45 feet.

New Richmond, Ohio, April 1.—The entire town of New Richmond was under water today. The people are on the hills surrounding the town. No one has been reported dead or missing. Fifty houses have been washed from their foundations. Assistance is needed.

Lawrenceburg, April 1.—An inspection made today showed that 70 homes of persons have been destroyed here. Relief work is being conducted systematically and relief has been received.

Parkersburg, April 1.—The three story building occupied by the Martin wholesale grocery company was burned and the adjoining buildings occupied by the Miller furniture company collapsed this morning. Both were in the flooded district and firemen could not reach them. The water is receding.

Washington, April 1.—President Wilson received today this message from Mayor T. J. Kennedy, by special messenger from Ironton, O.: "Ironton, three fourths under water. No gas, little coal. Food scarce. Need financial aid. City almost bankrupt."

Gallipolis, O., April 1.—The Ohio river began to recede this morning, after reaching the 76 foot stage, which is the highest in history. East Gallipolis is washed away. Gallipolis was flooded for two squares in the business district for the first time in its history. Two buildings have collapsed as result of the flood. About 200 houses passed down the river. Supplies are running short. Many of the homeless are camping on the hills.

Cairo, Ill., April 1.—Flood conditions here today are declared by the oldest citizens to be the most desperate in their time. The water is rising at the rate of one foot a day and it now stands but two feet and eight inches from the top of the concrete wall at the top of the levee. The reports from the weather bureau with regard to forecasts for the upper river section were enough to cause the gravest alarm. No reports have been made of receding water as far as Cincinnati. It is believed that the highest stage will not be reached today, and probably not before Wednesday night.

Hickman, Ky., April 1.—Telephone reports received here today from Columbus, Ky., a town of 1,000 inhabitants said water had covered the greater part of the village from 4 to 6 feet deep. The people have fled to the hills, and while there is some food it is feared there will be great suffering.

Evansville, Ind., April 1.—The Ohio river at 11 o'clock stood 46.6, within an inch of the January flood crest and the river was expected to continue to rise for two days. The lowlands here are well cleared of dwellers. The chief danger lies at the mouth of the Wabash river.

MORSE PROMENADING ON FIFTH AVENUE.

Charles W. Morse, the New York financier, lately pardoned from the federal prison at Atlanta, because he was believed by army surgeons to be dying, is apparently as well as ever.

Morse's trip to Europe and his business activities in New York since his return have so built up his health that to casual observers he shows no signs of ill health.

The banker, who was vice president and the controlling power in the National Bank of North America was a victim of the panic of 1907. When the controller of the treasury took possession of the institution he found a condition which warranted prosecution, and was followed by a conviction and a long sentence.

It takes a man with a small brain to get the big head.

J. C. DAVIDSON TELLS OF COLUMBUS FLOOD

J. C. Davidson the contractor who has many friends here told the Advocate Tuesday night that the water did not get farther west in Columbus than the foot of the hill at the state hospital but in order to get to the top of the hill he had to go above the storage dam via Fifth avenue a 15 mile trip. In the new engine house on the hill top 21 bodies were placed Monday.

"Just before I was there" said Mr. Davidson "a woman came in and identified the bodies of her husband and two children. Unless you see the condition of the buildings and property you cannot realize the state of affairs. It is indescribable. There is no gas or water west of the river though I am told Mr. Carmel hospital has its own water supply. There is plenty of coal and provisions for everyone."

The Advocate has received a telegram from Mrs. Harry Schrum, saying that Mr. and Mrs. Schrum are safe at Zanesville.
